2. Aims of the programme

Rationale and general aims, including what is special about this programme (from the student's and a marketing perspective)

This programme is designed for students who are interested in both film and literature. It aims to provide them with the opportunity to enjoy learning about, and engaging with, a broad range of literary texts in English; while also learning about the analysis of film and learning more about how films are made.

It is designed to enable students to:

- develop detailed knowledge of a range of literary texts and films and their relevant contexts
- describe and analyse texts and films in terms of their use of language and convention
- explore the relation of text / film to context
- reflect on social and ethical issues explored in texts and films and in critical debate
- conduct independent research using appropriate scholarly resources
- present research findings effectively, both in writing and through presentation
- experience some of the practical aspects of film-making and participate in making a short film
- develop their confidence in critical thinking and creative response to problems
- reflect on and maximise their future employability as graduates.

The professional development modules at each Level provide students with extended opportunities to gain workplace experience, develop professional skills and insights, and relate their academic and personal development to the world of work. These modules are supported by Leeds Trinity University's existing links with a wide range of organisations including schools, media organisations, charities, local businesses, publishers, and magazine and blog writers in Leeds. The programme also benefits from the in-house film production team, Trinity Vision, which has a full range of in-house film and radio production facilities.

Staff teaching on the programme include published writers, active in academic research, creative writing and performance, and staff with experience of working in the film industry.

3. Student learning outcomes of the programme

Learning outcomes in terms of:

- knowledge and understanding (K)
- intellectual / cognitive / 'thinking' skills (I)
- practical skills specific to the subject (P)
- employability skills (E)

The 'K1', etc codes are used in section 7b) and module descriptors to refer to each of these learning outcomes.

On successful completion of the programme students will have demonstrated

Knowledge and Understanding

- K1 Subject Knowledge – sound knowledge and critical understanding of a substantial number of literary texts in the principal genres of prose, drama, and poetry, and also of principal media forms and production processes, and the theories, concepts and methods required for the analysis of literature and film.
- K2 Contextual Knowledge – sound knowledge of a range of appropriate contexts, including historical, biographical, technological and commercial, and an awareness of the ways in which they might have influenced the production, distribution and the reception of literature and film.
- K3 Knowledge of Subject Conventions and Resources – sound knowledge and understanding of the scholarly conventions appropriate to both English and Film and the research and communication strategies required in order to achieve proficiency in these disciplines.

K4 Arts and Social Meaning – knowledge and understanding of the the power of the literature and film in creating, shaping, and mediating meanings and values and to engage with personal, social and ideological values.

Intellectual / Cognitive / 'Thinking' Skills

- I1 Interpretation / Production – secure use of appropriate skills in the production of literature or film and of the critical skills in the close reading, analysis, interpretation and evaluation of texts and films.
- I2 Contextualisation – an ability to relate a critical interpretation of texts and films to their historical, commercial and socio-cultural contexts.
- I3 Creating Solutions – an ability to identify and solve problems critically through the use of research techniques, resources and methods to locate and select appropriate evidence and to create coherent evidence-based solutions, or through a critical reflective understanding of creative methods and processes to create appropriate aesthetic solutions.
- I4 Communicating Solutions – an ability to communicate research findings in accordance with the normal academic standards and conventions of presentation and to do so adequately in various fora and media.
- I5 Ethical Self-Awareness – an ability to use different critical approaches to material studied, discuss texts and films in relation to ethical debates, and reflect from an international perspective on their own assumptions and practices as audiences, readers and writers.

Employability skills

- E1 Self-management – the ability to plan and manage time; readiness to accept responsibility and improve their own performance based on feedback/reflective learning; the ability to take initiative and be proactive, flexible and resilient;
- E2 Teamworking – the ability to co-operate with others on a shared task and to recognise and take on appropriate team roles; leading, contributing to discussions and negotiating; contributing to discussions; awareness of interdependence with others;
- E3 Business and sector awareness – an understanding of the key drivers for business success, including the importance of customer/client satisfaction and innovation; understanding of the market/sector in which an organisation operates; the ability to recognise the external context and pressures on an organisation, including concepts such as value for money, profitability and sustainability;
- E4 Problem-solving – a capacity for critical reasoning, analysis and synthesis; a capacity for applying knowledge in practice; an ability to retrieve, analyse and evaluate information from different sources;
- E5 Communication – the ability to present information clearly and appropriately, both orally and in writing, and to tailor messages to specific audiences and purposes;
- E6 Application of numeracy – a general awareness of mathematics and its application in practical contexts; the ability to carry out arithmetic operations and understand data, to read and interpret graphs and tables and to manage a budget;

- E7 Application of information technology – the ability to identify the appropriate IT package for a given task; familiarity with word-processing, spreadsheets and file management; the ability to use the internet and email effectively.
- E8 Entrepreneurship/enterprise – the ability to demonstrate an innovative approach and creativity, to generate ideas and to identify and take opportunities;
- E9 Social, cultural & civic awareness – embracement of an ethos of community and civic responsibility; an appreciation of diversity and ethical issues; an understanding of cultures and customs in the wider community.

See also the generic learning outcomes for subsidiary awards set out in section 4 below.

3a External benchmarks

Statement of congruence with the relevant published subject benchmark statements

(including appropriate references to any PSRB, employer or legislative requirements)

The English and Film Studies programme is compliant with the most recent QAA subject benchmark statements:

5. Content

Summary of content by theme

(providing a 'vertical' view through the programme)

The English and Film programme enables students to develop discipline-specific skills in four core themes: research methods and practice; English literature; film analysis; and professional practice. In addition, there are 3 further themes that can be followed through option choices: interdisciplinary analysis; the creative arts industries, and creative writing. The programme is designed to deliver these skills through vertical strands that provide a means of developing skills and knowledge across all three years of undergraduate study.

Research methods and practice

- L4 – ENG4412 Staging Identity: Researching Plays about Self and Society
- L6 – ENG6174 English Dissertation [40 credits] – or
- L6 – MFC6234 Media Research Dissertation [40 credits]

Literature

- L4 – ENG4412 Staging Identity: Researching Plays about Self and Society
- L4 – ENG4882 Vampires and Detectives: Reading Popular Genres
- L5 – ENG5542 Blood, Magic and Travel: Shakespearean Drama
- L5 – ENG5412 Twentieth Century Writing: Experiments in Literature and Society
- L6 – ENG6552 Dreaming the Middle Ages
- L6 – ENG6532 From The Tatler to Frankenstein: Reading Eighteenth-Century and Romantic Texts
- L6 – ENG6772 The Child and The Book
- L6 - ENG6222 Writing the New: Modernisms
- L6 – ENG6912 Labyrinths and Quests: Postmodern Fiction

Film Analysis

- L4 – MFC4082 Analysing Film
- L5 – MFC5602 Theorising Film
- L5 – MFC5112 Understanding Disney
- L6 – MFC6582 Computational Film Analysis

Professional Practice

- L4 – ENG4992 Ethics, Society and Employability
- L5 – ENG5012 Professional Development and Placement
- L5 – ENG5112 Professional Development and Placement (Volunteering)
- L6 – HUM6252 Professional Learning Through Work

Interdisciplinary Analysis [optional theme] – modules for study of texts and/or films

- L6 – ENG6552 Dreaming the Middle Ages
- L6 – MFC6182 Science Fiction
- L6 – MFC6162 Film and Television Adaptation

Creative Arts Industries [optional theme]

- L4 – MFC4432 International Film Industries
- L4 – MFC4412 Camera, Photography, and Lighting
- L5 – MFC5042 Script to Screen
- L5 – MFC5072 UK Film Industry
- L5 – MFC5202 Documentary Theory and Practice
- L6 – MFC6044 Advanced Documentary Production
- L6 – MFC6404 Advanced Short Film Production

Creative Writing [optional theme]

- L4 – MFC4352 Introduction to Scriptwriting
- L5 – ENG5742 Creative Writing Workshop 2
- L5 – MFC5042 Script to Screen

Section 7a of this document (below) describes how the content of the programme is further structured in progressive stages (by level) to ensure that the teaching and learning is cumulative and progressive.

6. Structure

BA (Hons) English and Film

Duration: 3 years full-time
Total credit rating: 360 (ECTS: 180)

Level 4 - with effect from September 2019

Core:	Students are required to take:

Deletion/addition of modules and title changes, etc – AG 25.1.19

IA – July 2019

ENG5012/5112 Digital skills and requirement to pass all elements (except placement) removed – AG 3.7.19

MFC6044	Advanced Documentary Production	Sem 1 & 2	40 credits
MFC6404	Advanced Short Film Production	Sem 1 & 2	40 credits

There is a prerequisite for enrolment on this module – see section 10.

7. Learning, teaching and assessment

7a) Statement of the strategy for learning, teaching and assessment for the programme

The learning and teaching provision on the English and Film programme is aligned with the University's Learning, Teaching and Assessment Strategy 2015-2019, supporting the principle that students are co-creators of their own learning and providing the skills and understanding required for them to manage that learning. The following approaches are prioritised in delivering the English and Film programme:

Learning

- Progressive Learning Structure: The learning is structured according to levels, to ensure that students are equipped with the knowledge and basic skills in the first year that enable them to explore project work at Level 5, and building confidence for the independent work undertaken at Level 6. The principles involved are as follows:
 - Level 4 (Foundation and Tools): There is an emphasis on learning what university-level study involves – including using appropriate research resources, learning conventions of scholarship, critical thinking, and the construction of a clear argument. The core module ENG4412 Staging Identity: Researching Plays about Self and Society explores fundamental research skills and resources; the core module ENG4562 Reading Literature: Prose and Poetry engages students with close reading skills across a range of genres; and the core module MFC4082 Analysing Film ensures students have a good grounding in the analysis and description of film style.
 - Level 5 (Range and Exploration): students consolidate their understanding of good scholarship, practise the skills introduced at Level 4, and explore the full range of research resources available. ENG5122 The Scandalous Victorians: Literature of the Industrial Revolution and MFC5032 Researching Media Film and Culture prepare students for their final-year dissertation by requiring them to devise their own research project.
 - Level 6 (Focus and Specialisation): Students complete a substantial research project for ENG6714 English Dissertation or MFC6234 Media Research Dissertation; and choose from a range of modules according to the interests they have developed and with the opportunity to work in areas of staff research interest.

Teaching:

- Student-Centred Learning: The programme's modules offer small class sizes, with an emphasis on enquiry and problem-solving, and a variety of different teaching methods used to encourage active student participation in learning (both as individuals and in groups), with regular provision of formative feedback on those activities.
- Directed Activities: At Level 4, to support student learning and active engagement in teaching sessions, specific activities are completed each week between sessions. These are also used, as appropriate, as a vehicle for formative feedback and for structuring teaching sessions.

Deletion/addition of modules and title changes, etc – AG 25.1.19

IA – July 2019

ENG5012/5112 Digital skills and requirement to pass all elements (except placement) removed – AG 3.7.19

- Use of VLE: Learning materials and resources are supplied in advance via Moodle. Resources offered include digitised reading materials; bespoke videos and podcasts; links to external sites and materials; quizzes, and additional module handout material and Powerpoints.

Assessment:

- Formative Assessment: students will have access to formative assessment in every module studied. In the creative writing modules formative assessment is central and students are specifically expected to provide feedback on the work of other students and discuss, in a reflective commentary, how formative feedback, received from peers and lecturers, has been incorporated into their own creative work.
- Diversity of Assessment methods: Assessment methods will vary according to the level of each module and its specific discipline. Normally, no form of assessment will be introduced at Level 6 which students have not already had the opportunity to undertake, with guidance, support and feedback, at Level 4 or 5.
- Integrated Assessment: Towards the end of Level 4, Semester 2 students will complete an Integrated Assessment by participating in a two-week production project with all students on Media and Film-related programmes in the year group. Their contribution to the project will draw on and integrate the skills developed in the modules asterisked in the programme structure.

8. Entry requirements

Honours degree programmes

Applicants should normally have achieved the following prior to registration for the programme: 5 academic qualifications, of which at least 2 should be level 3 qualifications equivalent to A2 and must also include GCSE grade C or 4 or above in English Language (or equivalent qualification). However, in some cases there may be additional special requirements, for example for ITT programmes or when the entry criteria are specified by an accrediting body. All required GCSEs will be listed by programme on the University website.

Some equivalent qualifications and the current typical offer conditions in terms of UCAS Tariff points are detailed in the undergraduate prospectus. For students whose first language is not English, a pass in an approved test in English is needed, e.g. the International English Language Testing Service (IELTS), with a minimum of 6.0 and with no component below 5.5, or accepted equivalent test. Full details of entry requirements are published by course on the Leeds Trinity website.

Applications are welcome from those with few or no formal qualifications. Any previous relevant work experience and learning will be assessed and, where appropriate, accredited as part of the application process. Please see Leeds Trinity's Principles and Guidelines for the Recognition of Prior Learning.

9. Progression, classification and award requirements

Details of requirements for student progression between levels and receipt of the award(s)

(A certain level of attainment which must be achieved in a specific module; any modules exempted from condonement, any deviation from the standard institutional stipulations for award classification, e.g. exclusion of Level 4 module marks from Foundation Degree classification)

Undergraduate Taught Course Academic Regulations apply.

The Employability/Professional Development and Placement modules ENG4992 and ENG5012/5112 are exempt from condoned failure and must be passed for progression.

10. Prerequisites

Details of modules which must be passed before enrolment on a module at a higher level

MFC5042 Script to Screen (or evidence of equivalent competence) is a prerequisite for MFC6404 Advanced Short Film Production.

MFC5042 Script to Screen or MFC5202 Documentary: Theory and Practice is a prerequisite for MFC6044 Advanced Documentary Production.

11. Additional support needs

Arrangements made to accommodate students with additional support needs and any unavoidable restrictions on their participation in the programme/scheme

Students with disabilities or other support needs are welcome and are expected to be able to participate fully in this programme. Arrangements will be made, via the normal University support systems, to accommodate students with additional support needs wherever possible, with reasonable adjustments made to accommodate individual needs.
